Headlights

Sean Lennon

What if I told you
This wasnt my head youre looking at
Not even my eyes beneath this hat
Let me assure you
Not every one loves to be afraid
Cause nothing feels better than okSo lets hide
All the diamonds and cocaine
For a rainy day
Never forget to pray
Before you go to bed tonight
You must turn off all your headlightsIm a believer Insignificant things can bring you dreams impeccable sense invisible streams
I'd never leave her
In any other circumstance
Today Im gonna take my chanceSo lets hide
All the diamonds and cocaine
For the rainy day
Never forget to pray
Before you go to bed tonight
You must turn off all your headlights
Count the stars instead of crying
Life is only slowly dyingSo lets hide
All the diamonds and cocaine
For the rainy day
Never forget to pray
Before you go to bed tonight
You must turn off all your headlights
Blow out the candles in your mind
You wont be needing them this time
