Shine

Mack Z

Every day I watch you
Out there in the light
Every day I see you
With your beautiful life
Doing all the things
I want to
Doing all the things
I dreamed I do
you don't know I've hoped and prayed
That maybe someday
Someday the chance will finally be mineTo Shine!
Shine!
to step out of the shadows
and into the light
To Shine!
Shine!
to come from the curtains
and start my lifeTell me will it ever
be my turn
to show the world
I'm ready
And it's my time
To Shine!Everyday I'm trying
Not to care
But everyday I'm thinking
Life's so unfair
Why am I the one
who has to wait
Why am I the one
who always takes
A back seat to somebody else's hopes and dreams
It's only right that chance should be mineTo Shine!
Shine!
To step out of the shadows
and into the light
To Shine!
Shine!

to come out from the curtains and start my lifeTell it will it ever
be my turn
to show the world
I'm ready
And it's my timeTo Shine!
There's got to be room
For me here
For me somewhere
There's got to be enough
song for a song
for us all to shareDon't we all deserve a chance One long awaited day at last Somewhere
Somehow
SometimeTo Shine!
Shine!
Oh Oh
Oh, Oh
To Shine!
Shine!
To step out of the shadows
and into the light
To Shine!
Shine! Shine!
To come out from the curtains
and start my life
To Shine!
Shine! Shine!
