

Being Followed

Duran Duran

To the voyer
Seated in the darkened room
Do you thrill
When the green light starts pulsingParanoia
The only valid point of view
If you know what I'm sayingI'm not alone
Being followed
Someone always watching what we do
Never alone
But I'm in the shadows
I dream things I don't want you to knowSomething shifting
Between the sirens and the glow
Of red lights
And the blue slowly turningA fog is lifting
A silhouette begins the show
Then the moment is stolenI'm not alone
Being followed
Someone always watching what we do
Never alone
But I'm in the shadows
I dream things I don't want you to know(La la la la la la la la)
(La la la la la la la la)
(La la la la la la la la)In this chamber
Lit by scandal
Your the bullet
In the barrel
Your the last thing
As I'm falling
Bloody roaring
Still I'm calling out
I'm calling outI'm not alone
Being followed
Never alone
I'm being followed
I'm not alone
Being followed
Never alone
I'm being followed
