

Occupy Your Mind

Villagers

'Cos it's the funniest feeling
So let's slip inside
Out of this world
Out of this life
'Cos this place called Home
Is no longer mine
So now I need to occupy your mind I just want to occupy your mind
('Cos it's the funniest feeling)
I just want to occupy your mind
(So let's slip inside)
I just want to occupy your mind
(Oh it's the funniest feeling)
I just want to occupy your mind
(So leave it behind) Well there's a crack in the ceiling
And there's a hole in the sky
And there's a government warning
They don't like our kind
But now it's three in the morning
And I'm feeling just fine
And I just want to occupy your mind I just want to occupy your mind
('Cos it's the funniest feeling)
I just want to occupy your mind
(So let's slip inside)
I just want to occupy your mind
(Oh it's the funniest feeling)
I just want to occupy your mind
(So leave it behind)
