

Submerge:Til We Become The Sun

Maxwell

All my days and
All my nights and
Every hour is devoured
As the dawning
Strokes it's morning
I'll be wanting I'll be

[Chorus]
Pushing to pull me
Closer to you dear
Deeper than gravity
Is how I must be near
I'll be hunting

As the moments
Drip like water
I'll be patient
For my slaughter
As the dawning
Slays the evening
I'll be waiting I'll be

[Chorus]
And though you cause my calling
And though you smell I'm crawling
You still ignore me watching every move babe
Every move babe

And though you taste I'm stalking
And though you know I'm haunting
You still ignore my atmosphere on you babe
On you babe

And all my days and
All my nights and
Every hour is devoured
As the dawning strokes the morning
I'll be wanting

I'll be hunting

Pull me
I'll be watching

Pull me
I'll be wanting

Pull me
I'll be loving

Pull me
I'll be nothing
