

Marie

Herbert Groenemeyer

In her face there hides no secret
Wrinkled nose, ears pricked for fun
Eyes see nothing but pleasure
There's a whole universe in this one Without care or concern
Gulf stream for the most frozen heart
So full of energy you brighten my day So impudent your outlook
Sadness has no chance
Irresistibly so enchanting Gentle compassion
Like a spring overflows
You're steel blue light
Full of the joys of life
Heavenly design
Sunlight streams from your smile You make my emotions hit the high spot
And you're always magical to me
My anger disappears in your presence
I love you oh so much, Marie Every inch of you incredible
So soft, it's beyond belief
The sheer power of your life force
Makes me weak, makes me shake like a leaf Your boisterousness is sure
To light up the darkest scene
You're stubborn as a mule
I'm caught up in the tide of your dreams You make my emotions hit the high spot
And you're always magical to me
My anger disappears in your presence
I love you oh so much, Marie Your head on my shoulder's addictive
Every fiber is alchemy
Open and free
I'm so entranced by your innocent peace
You've a hold on me You make my emotions hit the high spot
And you're always magical to me
My anger disappears in your presence
I love you oh so much, Marie
