

Give Judy My Notice

Ben Folds

Judy, could anyone
Be loved any more?
Than I love you
Does it hurt you too? And Judy I've been feeling
Small too long
I love you so
But something's wrong And I come running
When you want me here
And when you want me to
I disappear, Judy I knew if I made it easy for you
You'd settle for me
Yeah, eventually But Judy I can't be
Myself anymore
It's way too hard
Being loved by default And I can't do this any longer
The vacuum left
Is so much stronger, Judy Judy, you know
I'm not mad anymore
At least most of the time
But it could take a while And I've been living
Just to see you smile
Every once in a while Tears fall but that don't Mean nothing at all
Just 'cause I said it first
Yeah, that's why it hurts ya And Judy I won't be
Your bitch anymore
And follow you 'round
And hold the door And I'm not sorry
If you're not sorry
And you're not sorry
'Till I make you, Judy, Judy Give Judy my notice
Give Judy my notice
