

Hey Broken

Heather Maloney

Callin' you
Country kitchen
Where the kids climb in trees in the yard Callin' you
City situations
Where the heels at the sidewalk hard He's waving at you minivan hand with the ring on the wheel in the slow lane he's tuggin' at you far away cause he can only make it to you in an airplane and your dress torn down the middle your life split in two Two will be committal

and when you follow we'll follow through

Yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah
Ohhhh
Yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah
Oh
Hey broken
Your ears are smokin'
Can think you way into the answer this time
Noo

Hey broken
A door will open for you
gotta rest your worried head
You gotta ease your worried mind.

She's callin' you Eastern angel
With her songs and her scars and her sorrow
She's callin you
Western woman
with your top ways your tan and your toro (???)
and your daughter torn down the middle your a nation split in two

and when you follow we'll follow through

Yeah yeah yeah
Oh yeah yeah yeah

Oh Hey broken
your ears are smokin'
Can think your way into the answer this time

Nooo
hey broken
hey broken
hey broken
you gotta ease your worried mind.
