Suddenly

Soraya

A thousand eyes looking at me
But yours is the look that goes right through me
And I cannot hide from your stare
Should I let you in do I dare
Some other hands have tried before
But yours is the touch that makes me want more
And I cannot hide the urgency
To have you lying here with me becauseSuddenly in my life
There's something that's got me mystified
And I cannot fight it but I can try
To keep the wonder of it aliveA thousand words have tried to say
Yours are the ones that'll never fade away
And I cannot hide from their sound
I am mesmerized spinning round and round
And some other hearts have tried to steal mine
Yours is the one that I now hold dear
I'll do what it takes to keep you here
I'm a selfish fool and I have no fearSuddenly in my life
There's something that's got me mystified
And I cannot fight it but I can try
To keep the wonder of it aliveA thousand times I've tried to stay
Alone by pushing you away
Time after time and tear after tear
I find myself back here with you
A thousand visions have come to me
All promising serenity
As I struggle to find the source of this peace
I always end up with your kissSuddenly in my life
There's something that's got me mystified
And I cannot fight it but I can try
To keep the wonder of it aliveSuddenly in my life
There's something that's got me mystified
And I cannot fight it but I can try
To keep the wonder of it alive
