The Border Line

Goldspot

I' ve been away so long
And father I
Don't know where I have gone
Time- brought me here
I called it home
A Place- I have never known,
It seems,
I am caught between,
Moving planes
Beneath my feet.
I can see beyond the wall,
That's standing in my way.
You are waiting on...the other side.
After all I built it with
My very own hands can't you tell.
So why i this so hard for me,
To take down.
- I was born on a borderline and thoughts race through my mind,
Items escaped in the middle of night and my heart and head collide.
I was born on the borderline
On the great divide.

I have been away so long,
And Mother I don't know
Where the time has gone
The winds brought me here
I call it home
A place I have never known.
I can see beyond the wall
I hear a distant call,
You are waiting on the other side.
After all I have built it with
My very own hands can't you tell.
So why is this so hard for me
To take down.
- I was born on the borderline and thoughts race through my mind
Items escaped in the middle of night and my heart and head collide.
I was born on the borderline
On the great divide.I can see beyond the wall

I hear a distant call
You are waiting on the other side.
- I was born on the borderline and thoughts race through my mind
Items escaped in the middle of night and my heart and head collide.
- I was born on the borderline and thoughts race through my mind
Items escaped in the middle of night and my heart and head collide.
I was born on the borderline
On the great divide.ï»¿

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/