Nothing To Lose

Mltr (michael Learns To Rock)

Open all your pockets
Give it all way
'Cause no one really cares
Hard to justify with
A tear in you eye
Hope you're trying to get your share
And when you run out of reasons
Your whole life feels
Hollow and cold
Take a look around and see what
You have found
And hope you die before you get old
Just wait and see you better believe
So now what's your excuse
When you know
You got nothing to lose
How can you refuse when the hammer
Comes down on you
You can spend
Your whole life waiting
Trying to find something to do
But don't wait till it's to late no one
Will have pity on you
It's right there if you want it reach
Out and take it in your hand
Your problems multiply when you're
Forced to comply
Your living my someone else's plan
And when your life is a prison
And doubt is your burden and jail

Make out a list
Of the things you would risk
If you knew you never could fail
Just wait and see you better believe
So now what's your excuse
When you know
You got nothing to lose
How can you refuse when the hammer

Comes down on you
You can spend
Trying to find something to do
But don't wait till it's to late no one
Will have pity on you
And when your life starts flashing
Before your eyes
Your one regret will be the things
You never tried
Now you can only lose
When you know
Comes down on you
You can spend
Will have pity on you
