Stunt Double

Tony Sly

Here's another, drink to cover,
Every word you say.
Fine excuses,
It wasn't you then,
Sorry, my mistake.So here comes the part,
Where the stunt double plays.
You ask somebody else to take the fall and blame.Building bridges,
Playing with matches,
Burning yourself down.
Find the exit,
Before they get it,
Take the easy way out.So here comes the part,
Where your stunt double plays,
You have somebody else I think we imitate.
Here comes the part where your stunt double plays,
You ask somebody else to take the fall and blame.
