

It's You

The Coral

You're a killer in the headlights

A lover in the morning

You're looking for a free ride

Heading for a fallAnd it's you

Yes it's you

That I'm turning intoYou're a stranger in the moon's gaze

A hermit with a curfew

Looking for a new way

To blame it on the world

And it's you

Yes it's you

That I'm turning intoWhen you cried

Your selfish tears

The fruits of your labour

Were Laid bare

There was nothing to say

So I left you thereYou're a stranger in the doorway

Familiar with your new friends

Waiting on the day

When a lie becomes a truth

And it's you

Yes it's you

And it's you

Yes it's you

That I'm turning into
