The Yandere Song

Nancy Kepner

So i made an extra lunch and you can eat it if your hungry...no i didnt make it for you..are you trying to be funny? I made it for my...sister...but she had to stay home sick..she seemed fine in class last period.. just eat the food you prick! While the other guys i've been with they might tell you to be warry, but its only cus i care babe and forever you'r tsundere i've never felt this way before...i havent got a clue how to handle these emotions. I just dont know what to do.. and its all you'r fault i feel this way! My stomach's falling thru. Im nice and kind full stuff the time, im only mean to you. The rules i do follow wont always at here to fairplay but its only cus i care babe and forever you'r tsundere (tsun tsun tsun tsun dere dere am i sweet or am i scary? Dere dere tsun tsun cus once upon a blue moon dere dere tsun tsun cus once upon a blue moon dere dere tsun tsun ill say i love you too..) i'd wall a thousand miles just to scream and call you "BAKA!" Cus your head might just explode if im never ganna mock ya i'll go away out of my way one moment i can spite you but a part of you gets angry thats how you can tell i like you. You told me i was beautiful.. i pushed you down a stairway, thats how you know i care babe and for ever you'r tsundere...
