I See Stars

Say you don't believe
It's human nature to me
The moment a bullet leaves
A fool's future is weavedI'm just trying to breathe fire
The news took the wind right out of me
There's no relief in the silent
Ways we grieve
One reason for the pain you caused
Two words to mend the damage done
Three left in the chamber of your gun
Four seconds to runYou say you don't believe
It's human nature to me
The moment a bullet leaves
A fool's future is weaved
I can feel centered and the world comes with it
I can feel centered and the world comes with itI just want the world to know it's realI just want the world to know it's realIt's the colour they see; Fire
Never knowing the face behind the name
It's always easy staying quiet
But red's the colour we bleedOne reason for the pain you caused
Two words to mend the damage done
Three left in the chamber of your gun
Four seconds to runSay you don't believe
It's human nature to me
The moment a bullet leaves
A fool's future is weaved
You say you don't believe
It's human nature to me
The moment a bullet leaves
A fool's future is weaved
I can feel centered and the world comes with it
I can feel centered and the world comes with itPinch yourself, shed a tear, remind yourself the world is realIt's always easy staying quiet
But red's the colour we bleedI just want the world to know it's real, whoa oh
I just want the world to know it's realSo say you don't believe!
You say you don't believe
It's human nature to me
The moment a bullet leaves
A fool's future is weaved

I can feel centered and the world comes with it
I can feel centered and the world comes with it
