

To Get to You (55th and 3rd)

Kenny Chesney

New York City
55th and 3rd
I reached my hand
And there you were

You led me where
I thought I wouldn't go
It's more than just my hand now
That you hold

There've been lessons learned
Pages turned
Even a few bridges burned
Love's become a frightening thing to do

Well I've been out
And I've been in
I've been scared to try again
You're worth every hurt
My heart's been through

I'd go through it all again
If I had to
To get to you

I still see us dancing in my mind
My arms stay around you all the time
Even when we're miles and miles apart
I reach out my hand
And there you are

There've been lessons learned
Pages turned
Even a few bridges burned
Love's become a frightening thing to do

Well I've been out
And I've been in
I've been scared to try again
You're worth every hurt

My heart's been through

I'd go through it all again

If I had to

To get to you

55th and 3rd (to get to you)

In a corner booth

I hung on every word (to get to you)

Your back beneath my hands

As close as we could be (to get to you)

You pulled me close

And danced the heart right outta me

And there've been lessons learned

Pages turned

Even a few bridges burned

Love's become a frightening thing to do

Well I've been out

And I've been in

I've been scared to love again

But you're worth every hurt

My heart's been through

I'd go through it all again

If I had to

To get to you

55th and 3rd

To get to you

Oh, I hung on every word

55th and 3rd

55th and 3rd
