

All I Have (feat. Diane Birch) [Live]

Mat Kearney

Here we go at it three years later
Will you help me to dream it all up again?
Tired of the same song everyone's singing
I'd rather be lost with you instead Don't you come around here, come around here anymore
Dragging my fears, dragging my fears out the door All I have, all I have, all I have, well you know it's yours
Every breathe, every step, every moment I'm looking for
All I have, all I have, all I have is yours
And you watch my heart break a little bit more
My heart break a little bit more, my heart break a little bit more Is it cold yet in New York City?
'Round here the trees been blowing off bare
Everyone's talking about change on the airwaves
But I still got you on my breathe Don't you come around here, come around here anymore
Dragging my fears, dragging my fears out the door All I have, all I have, all I have, well you know it's yours
Every breathe, every step, every moment I'm looking for
All I have, all I have, all I have is yours
And you watch my heart break a little bit more
My heart break a little bit more Lord, I'm still trying at this my hardest
So pick us all up from a fall
Rip a little corner off the darkness
Just to crack, the light in the middle of it all All I have, all I have, all I have, well you know it's yours
Every breathe, every step, every moment I'm looking for
All I have, all I have, all I have is yours
And you watch my heart break a little bit more
My heart break a little bit more, my heart break a little bit more
Little bit more, little bit more, little bit more
