

James Gang

Taylor Hawkins & The Coattail Riders

Maybe this is all you get
Wake up just to live through it
Shell with owls and empty stair
Too far gone to even care
Rip the heart right off your sleeve
Bound the truth won't set you free
Maybe you'll always be the one
On the wrong side of the gun
Maybe this will be the day
When everything will call your way
Do what you can, take what you can
Wake up again just to live through it
Rip the heart right off your sleeve
Bound the truth won't set you free
Maybe you'll always be the one
On the wrong side of the gun
We've got nothing left to hide
We've got nothing left but time
On your side
Rip the heart right off your sleeve
Bound the truth won't set you free
Maybe you'll always be the one
On the wrong side of the gun
On your side
