Keep Holding Me

The Muffs

Keep holding me, keep holding me
Keep holding me, oh, boy
Keep holding me, keep holding me
Keep on holding me now, boyWhen you're holding me so tight
I will always feel the same
Keep on holding me all night
Then I'll never be insaneKeep on holding me through the night
Keep on holding me all through the night
Keep on holding me through the night
Keep on holding me all through the night soKeep holding me, keep holding me
Keep holding me, oh, boy
Keep holding me, keep holding me
Keep on holding me now, boyWhen I see you go away
I will never be the same
Keep on holding me today
Then I'll never be insaneKeep on holding me through the night
Keep on holding me all through the night
Keep on holding me through the night
Keep on holding me all through the nightKeep on holding me through the night
Keep on holding me all through the night
Keep on holding me through the night
Keep on holding me all through the night soKeep holding me, keep holding me
Keep holding me, oh, boy
Keep holding me, keep holding me
Keep on holding me now, boyKeep on holding me now, boy
Keep on holding me now, boy
