All Things Flow in One Direction

The Zendeavors

Chase the rising sun away/ I've been gone for days and days, and
Kissed yo fist then on my way/ made no difference if I stayed, so
Wise man told me "Let it be/ watch the grass and leaves a second...
"When the wind blows you will see/ All things flow in one direction"

Ok. Allright.
Ok. Why can't I feel it though?

Standing on a passing shade/ watch those colors that we made and
Some were lovely as could be/ all dissolved tween two and three though
Two wrongs do not make a right/ but might three help me sleep at night?
The hardest thing was how easy it was/ to shed my former life

Ok. Allright.
Ok. Why can't I feel it though?

If you never knew me well/ guess I never knew myself then
Gave you, showed you all I had/ here's my heart and here's my hell, so Wise man told me "Say the least/ thinking only feeds the beast, and
"When you find the space between/ maybe you could find some peace."

Ok. Allright.
Ok. Why can't I feel it though?
