

Best Man

Jagged Edge

Tell me what's the reason
That a man's own woman could be so cold
And tell me how the two of you could do
What you were doin' right in my home?
We were supposed to get married
It's kinda scary that we just almost did
I hope that you're happy 'cuz you got each other
I don't know part of your love You were my best man
She meant everything to me
She was my girlfriend
Closer than two could ever be
You were my best man, best man, yeah yeah
She was my girlfriend, girlfriend, yeah yeah
Supposed to be my best friend Should've known when I asked a question
You couldn't even look me in my eyes no more
Then you start to st-st-stutter
Talkin' bout some 'You know better', man hell, no no
Tell me how could you, you
Forget about the situation that we've been through
Tell me why? Oh why? Why?
Did you cheat on me, baby, baby, tell me why? Think about the time
Thinkin' bout all the time we shared
Together you and I
I remember when you were my best friend
What's the reason why?
What's the reason why, why, why?
Why, why, why, why, why? You were my best man
She meant everything to me
She was my girlfriend
Closer than two could ever be
You were my best man, best man, yeah yeah
She was my girlfriend, girlfriend, yeah yeah
Supposed to be my best man You were my best man
She meant everything to me
She was my girl friend
Closer than two could ever be
You were my best man, best man, yeah yeah
She was my girlfriend girlfriend, yeah yeah
Supposed to be my best man You were my best man

She meant everything to me
She was my girl friend
Closer than two could ever be
You were my best man, best man, yeah yeah
She was my girlfriend, girlfriend, yeah yeah
Supposed to be my best man
