R Ska Song

Mest

well i went to your house and i knocked at the door parents tell me to get down on the floor i got nothing better to doso i say hey fk you and i really hate your mother i really hate your father they're always picking on me i went to the record store i had no money i lost it all on a bet i don't think that it's too funny now i can't buy minor threat and i really hate your mother i really hate your father they're always picking on me i stay stay stay far away maybe i'll be back another day parents tell me to get a job and i really don't care what they say and i really hate your mother i really hate your father they're always picking on me went to the record store i had the money i lost it all on a bet well i don't think that it's too funny now i can't buy minor threat and i really hate your mother i really hate your mother i really hey hey hey hey hey on me on me on me on me hey hey let's go
