

Bingo Bull's-eye

Chad Brock

He's got her number written on the palm of his hand
His best friend got the number from her best friend
His heart starts racin' when he hears the dial tone
He never dreamed she'd be waiting by the phone
When she answered it felt so right
They talked all night
Bingo bull's-eye
Dead-on the very first try
When it's the right girl and the right guy
Bingo bull's-eye
Everywhere they go, they're together now
And there's talk, they're talkin' 'bout forever now
And what are the chances what are the odds
They'd get it right, right from the start
Only heaven knows how the story's gonna end
But every now and then
Bingo bull's-eye
Dead-on the very first try
When it's the right girl, the right guy
Bingo bull's-eye
Who'd have ever dreamed it
And who'd have ever thought it
Love's a shootin' star
And they caught it
Bingo bull's-eye
Dead-on the very first try
When it's the right girl, the right guy
Bingo bull's-eye
Bingo bull's-eye
Dead-on the very first try
Bingo bull's-eye
The right girl, the right guy
Bingo bull's-eye
