

The Party Never Dies

Andrew W.K.

The child was born
Into a world of love
Into a world of pain
Into the night
Into the sun and rainThe child was torn
Between the black and white
Between the wrong and right
Between despair
And pure delight
The child of mysteries
The child of lies
The party never diesThe child is found
Beyond the rise and fall
Beyond the in and out
Beyond our faith
And all our doubt
The child is crowned
In a halo of gold
A vision to behold
Life unrestrained
And uncontrolledThe child of mysteries
The child of lies
The party never dies
