Intrinsic

After Forever

At night, assimilate life
In the infinite realm
Of our intrinsic sideFind, the missing parts of the mind
The hidden truth behind
Our dungeon of thoughts, this labyrinthSearch, it has a reason and a meaning
Remembered and repeated
A guide, not to be ignoredFeel, there's so much to feel Amnesia must confiscate an elusive link to consciousnessIt's there; cause there's so much we don't know
Even our own true face
It's there, facing what we can't haveOur ideals ain't true, naked and exposed
To the bareness of what's real
Boundless fantasy, becomes reality
As we breathe water and run through the sandWhispers and a scream, flying high, falling down
And a face with no features or name
Exposed to live, we can only divine
Tell me, what's your reality?
