

Fight

Frankie Chavez

Bright city living of broken dreams
People always swearing
They just don't say what they mean
I wonder if this table will ever turn
Everyone around me has got this story to tell
One way or another it's a living hell
I wonder if it's time to sit tight
I may have lost this battle
But I sure ain't gonna lose no fight!
I won't let the trigger lose it's click
I'll even bite the air if it gets too thick
I might even slow down so I don't have to fall
I don't need no pirates to hack my dreams
All I really need is love from those who believe
One day I know I am gonna see the light
I may have lost this battle
But I sure a'int gonna lose no fight
Yeah, I may have lost this battle
But I sure a'int gonna lose no fight!
I may have lost this battle
but I sure a'int gonna lose no fight!
I may have lost this battle
but I sure a'int gonna lose no fight!
Yeah, I may have lost this battle
But I sure a'int gonna lose no fight!
Yeah, I may have lost this battle
But I sure a'int gonna lose no fight!
Yeah, I may have lost this battle
But I sure a'int gonna lose no fight!
Yeah, I may have lost this battle
But I sure a'int gonna lose no fight!
Yeah, I may have lost this battle
But I sure a'int gonna lose no fight!
Yeah, I may have lost this battle
But I sure a'int gonna lose no fight!
Yeah, I may have lost this battle
But I sure a'int gonna lose no fight!
Yeah, I may have lost this battle
But I sure a'int gonna lose no fight!
