Too Drunk to Dream

The Magnetic Fields

Sober, life is a prison Shit faced, it is a blessing Sober, nobody wants you

Shit faced, they're all undressingOh, sober, it's ever darker

Shit faced, the moon is nearer

Sober, you're old and ugly

Shit faced, who needs a mirror?Oh, sober, you're a cromagnon

Shit faced, you're very clever

Sober, you never should be

Shit faced, now and foreverI gotta get too drunk to dream

'Cause dreaming only makes me blue

I gotta get too drunk to dream

Because I only dream of youI gotta get too pissed to miss you

Or I'll never get to sleep

I gotta drink wine not to pine for you

And God knows that ain't cheapI know you think I'm insane

I know it's not appealing

But till I'm feeling no pain

Guess what I'll be feeling? I gotta get too drunk to dream

'Cause dreaming only makes me blue

I gotta get too drunk to dream

Because I only dream of youI gotta get too fried to cry

Or I'll be crying all night long

I gotta get too high to sigh

Oh, my God, where did I go wrong? So why do I get plastered?

And why am I so lonely?

It's you, you heartless bastard

You're my one and only I gotta get too drunk to dream

'Cause dreaming only makes me blue

I gotta get too drunk to dream

Because I only dream of youI gotta get too pissed to miss you

Or I'll never get to sleep

I gotta drink wine not to pine for you

And God knows that ain't cheap

And God knows that ain't cheap
