Savage Moon

Thompson Twins

The pressure is on - the wolf is at the door
All the ghosts that haunt my life are screaming out for more
I try to fight them
But I just can't win
I'm always on the outsied
Always tryin' to get in Tell me again of what love can bring oh-oh

(chorus)
I was touched by a savage moon
I was kissed by a burning sky
I can run away but there's nowhere to hide
I'll be running 'til the day I die

Well there's a civil war that's raging
Raging in my soul
c'mon hold me close
Save me from the cold
If you take a chance
I'll take one too
It won't be that hard
When we've got nothing to lose
Weave me a tale where love is true

CHORUS

If I could believe in fairytales
A life of happy endings that would never ever fail
Tell me a story where love is true
