

In the Morning

Built to Spill

in the morning feeling halfright if it was more than just 1 day in the morning i'd feel alright today is flat beneath the weight of next day, next day, next day, next day feeling halfright ignore my condition just an isolated incident in the morning appearing normal feeling halfright another isolated incident what it will do to get through the hell of the night when my mind's uncertain my body decides well my eyes can't wait til they finally see through you when I get this feeling like I'm gonna start I just have to stop as I trip on the ocean that leads through your eyes
