

Silly Boy (She Doesn't Love You)

The Lettermen

Silly boy, silly boy, she doesn't care
Silly boy, silly boy, she's not playing fair
She doesn't love you, go and find someone new
And don't be a fool, silly boy It's over and done, so you say
Can't believe our love could end this way
Someone else is playing my part
And here's what I'm telling my heart Silly boy, silly boy, she doesn't care
Silly boy, silly boy, she's not playing fair
She doesn't love you, go and find someone new
And don't be a fool, silly boy Be a man and don't lose your pride
Keep the tears and pain locked inside
I keep saying these things, but I know
In my heart I still love her so Silly boy, silly boy, she doesn't care
Silly boy, silly boy, she's not playing fair
She doesn't love you, go and find someone new
And don't be a fool, silly boy Silly boy, silly boy, don't be a fool
Silly boy, silly boy, she doesn't care
Silly boy

Songwriters

Dave Burgess; M Thomas Published by
SONY/ATV ACUFF-ROSE MUSIC

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>