All your body talk babyRed Velvet - Body Talk English Translation

You're nodding
But you're not approving
Your eyes are telling me
That you're not listening
The way you're leaning on the other end of the table
The way you're biting your lips
The sighs built up at the end of my words
They're shouting at me
That your heart isn't here right now
Why can I hear it all?
Each thing, everything
Things that I don't wanna know
All your body talk, your body
Why are you making me notice?
Each thing, everything
What are you saying?
All your body talk, your body
As if you're looking for the right time
Your fingers look anxious
Those fingertips tell me
That today is the end
Tying up the silence
With forgettable stories
Between the words of the break up
That you've prepared
I'm busy running away
Why can I hear it all?
Each thing, everything

Things that I don't wanna know
All your body talk, your body
Why are you making me notice?
Each thing, everything
What are you saying?
All your body talk
All your body talk
All your body talk
Tears are falling, tears are falling
Tears are falling
My burning heart
Is it my imagination?
I'm smiling with low expectations
But even now, I'm still in love
Why can I hear it all?
Each thing, everything
Things that I don't wanna know
All your body talk, your body
Why are you making me notice?
I don't wanna hear it anymore
Do you have to do this?
All your body talk
All your body talk
All your body talk
Tears are falling, tears are falling
Tears are falling
All your body talk
All your body talk
All your body talk
Tears are falling, tears are falling
Tears are falling
All your body talk baby
