David Garcet

When you hear me calling your name in the night
Do you run to your window thinking a coyote might
    Be howling
When you hear me knocking at your door again
    Do you tell yourself it's only the wind
        That's blowing
When you watch the sun sink down in the west
Do you tell yourself that the heart in your chest
Is still beating Will you know or must I tell you
    This is my lover's spell you have fallen into
        My dear
            My voice is all you'll hear
Only the sound of my heart pounding, darling
        You took my heart
            Cast it aside
                Laughed when I cried
                    Like it was just no big deal
                        And here all alone in the dark
I know just how you feel When you feel my fingers touch your skin again
    Do you tell yourself there's just no use
        In crying
    When the stars in the sky begin to fade
    Do you tell yourself, don't be afraid
        It's just the night
    That's dying Will you know or must I tell you
This is my lover's spell you have fallen into, my dear
    My voice is all you'll hear
    Only the sound of my heart pounding, darling
