

10,000 Witnesses

Clutch

After defying the grip of the hangmans noose
And recovering my cognizance
Spun the compass north by northwest
And took liberty out for a long slow dance Took a good look around, what did I see?
A big red tent and people coming in like the tide of the sea
I ducked in to catch the shade
Preacher jump up all ablaze They say, "This year rock is coming back, Jack
White gnashing teeth like wolves in the pack
Carnivorous, no mercy, hon
Theres plenty here for everyone, so come, get you some" 10,000 witnesses, show em how its done, son
Fist full of cottonmouth, rock that podium
Walk on the ashes, no half stepping, kid
Their fans are flashing in expectation
All right now, all right now, all right now, all right They say, "This year rock is coming back, Jack
White gnashing teeth like wolves in the pack
Carnivorous, no mercy, son
Theres plenty here for everyone, so come, get you some" While living on the lamb and all cut loose
Number of the saints march on in
Gonna find my executioners
And show them exactly what it means to live 10,000 witnesses, show em how its done, son
Fist full of cottonmouth, rock that podium
Walk on the ashes, no half stepping, kid
Their fans are flashing in expectation
All right now, all right now, all right now, all right They say, "This year rock is coming back, Jack
White gnashing teeth like wolves in the pack
Carnivorous, no mercy, hon
Theres plenty here for everyone, so come, get you some" They say, "This year rock is coming back, Jack
White gnashing teeth like wolves in the pack
Carnivorous, no mercy, hon
Theres plenty here for everyone, so come, get you some"
