Here Sometimes

Blonde Redhead

A little girl upon the fireplace
Only air flying emotionless
Ring the bells for she could keep flying
This is me, completely me
End of day, we watched the sun go down
I can see you're like a firework
You? want to save me, people? will save me
But this is you, completely you
Now? it's? day, but I am dreaming
A man walks by, I want to be his wife
I'm only here sometimes
Under the tree of life
I'm only good sometimes
To keep my time to go home
Like a candle wasted from burning

I got shoes tired from walking
Calling out your name, my lips keep failing
They have now forgot to sing
Now it's day, but I am dreaming
A man walks by, I want to be his wife
I'm only here sometimes
Under the tree of life
I'm only good sometimes
To keep my time to go home
I'm only here sometimes
Under the tree of life
I'm only good sometimes
To keep? my time to go home
I'm only good sometimes
Under the tree of life
I'm only here sometimes
To keep my time to go home

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/