

Join With Us

Baked Beans

Half past eight and you're late
Coffee's cold, what a state
They've dragged you down Fate's got you scraped
Work to death
Can't you turn them words around? Is it really what you want?
Is it really what you need?
Is it really what you choose, my dear? Is it really what you want?
Is it really what you need?
Is it really what you choose, oh, oh? The world is in your hands
The world is in your hands
The world belongs to those of us
Who still believe we can And it matters what you do
Though they all look down on you
'Cos it's better that you've come from nothing
Than nothing comes from you Come with us, come with us
Come with us, come with us
Join with us, join with us
Join with us, join with us Don't make a sound
Count your pennies
Count your pounds
There's no way out What will you do
When all love gives up on you?
Can't turn around Is it really what you want?
Is it really what you need?
Is it really what you choose, oh, oh? The world is in your hands
The world is in your hands
The world belongs to those of us
Who still believe we can And it matters what you do
Though they all look down on you
'Cos it's better that you've come from nothing
Than nothing comes from you Come with us, come with us
Come with us, come with us
Join with us, join with us
Join with us We've got a place and it's here for you
For all we ever wanted was a different view
I never knew somebody live with so much pain
If you open your heart, come with us and we'll take you away Come with us, come with us
Come with us, come with us
Join with us, join with us

Join with us, join with usCome with us, come with us
Come with us, come with us
Join with us, join with us
