How To Operate With a Blown Mind

Lo Fidelity Allstars

Never ride the lonely road, above all, at sundown
For dusk is when the little men melt into the mountains
Melt into the mountains
Melt into the mountainsTaking the Lords name in vain
'Cause Im steppin out on the streets again
'Cause Im tortured by demons, winged beasts and carrions
The air is alive with dagger and poisons, almost moving me to tears
But you and I both know, the streets are paved with fearsSevere mental fog
Regans a mad killer dog
London lives up its arse
These horrors have surely come to passIm twitchin and sweatin on the front line
And mans a monster
Hes a monster in his own time
Hes a monsterIve seen dagger and poison fall
Were fallin and carnage rules
So search your heart and tear it apart
Rip it apartHydra-headed fear
Is all around here
Crack
Youre under attackIt seems like youve learnt to live in a bubble
But imagine the trouble
When you fall from your wall and burst your balloon
'Cause itll happen soon
Yeah its gonna fuckin happen soonSteppin out on the streets again
Taking the Lords name in vain
Almost moving me to tears
What you and I both know, the streets are paved with fearsElectric congestion
Kamikaze pedestrians
Whats it all mean?
Cant juggle with JesusDirty green sea
Naked reality
Twenty-four seven
Twenty-four sevenFlapping like a trapped bird
In the seven eleven
Crack
Youre under attackThen youll see mans your own worst enemy
Peoples hopes and fears
You know they seem
Peoples hopes and dreams

You know they seem so out of reach to meYou know they seem so out of reach to me
