

Burning Down

Psychoburg

You let me down, cant fix you now
Thought i could count on you to be around
You bring me down, down, down way down
 What is the problem
 Are you taking me seriously
 Is it a joke to you
 Or maybe im a fool
 Why am i trying
 So hard to be the girl that you need
 How is this fair to me
 When you break through
 This is to much
 Dont call it love
 You are the reason its so hard to trust
 Boy this aint what i wanted
 And now its got to stop
 You let me down, cant fix you now
 Thought i could count on you to be around
 You bring me down, down, down way down
 No more tears
 Why did i let you have so much control
 I gave my arm to you
 And you pushed me away
 Why are you here oh
 Dont you see im letting you go
 The damage is done baby
 I have nothing to say
 Its gone to far
 Dont know who you are
 I think its better that we are apart
 Babe i know where i am

 And i know where your near
 You let me down, cant fix you now
 Thought i could count on you to be around
 You bring me down, down, down way down
 You let me down, thought i had had found
 Some one to catch me when i hit the ground
 You bring me down, down, down way down (ooooh)

Would you like it if
I did the same thing to
You and i lasted
Walking years on ma shoes
Boy theres no excuse
Cause of what you did theres no me and you
Would you like it if
I did the same thing
You wouldnt of liked
Walking in time
Thats who you are and im so over you
You bring me down, down, down way down
You let me down, thought i had had found
Some one to catch me when i hit the ground
You bring me down, down, down way down
Down
Down
Stop bringing me, stop bringing me
Down down
Oooh
