

I'm Ready, I Am

The Format

im nicotine
im coming clean
i fooled the crowd when i made it sound like i was more than ready.
strike up the band
deprive my sleep
cause theres no love like apathy the bounded door swings load and nothing it should have woke us up

(chorus)

im trying to find truth
in words
in rymes
in notes
in all the things i wish i wote cause i feel like iv been losing you.

i read you last entry
over privileged kids keep crying the need to fit in gets harder when living life from a shrink. all classmates please drop all your pens dont write a word cause i wont reply and im not bitter
its just i passed that point in my life.

(chorus)

in rymes
in notes
in all the things i wish i wrote cause i feel like i've been losing you each night it ends to soon you dont hold me like you use to
and your eyes look like they've seen to much cause

its always some excuse
to tired
to obtuse
you look so far removed it looks like this time im losing you for good.

(music.)

im a cash machine
im the color green
and you should have seen the looks i just recived

i need a reason to let go an intervention
lullaby
someting to cure me
please belive me

(chorus)

in rymes
in notes
to tried
you looked so far removed it looks like this time i feel im just not getting through.
