

Vision 18teen * the Last Fight

Vanden Plas

is this steel of odin strong enough to steep my candle did you come here to put out at last my flame i'm the one and only tearing down the worlds of mayhem it's the first time that a dead man wins the gamesooner or later we open our eyes fortunate that we were blind sooner or later we're trying for love love's at the end of the lineafter all the daemons i've faced in this purgatory on my private way to heaven - hell and back sought for my beloved ones that i never dared to find herehere's the dark god's final murderous attack i'm searching for the one - still i'm searching sooner or later we open our eyes fortunate that we were blindsooner or later we're crying for love love's at the end of the line so this dying extinguishes our bloodline no chance of hiding the look in your eyeswhich says you will kill me this time die here - you will die here - you will die here - you will die here die here - you will die here -you will die here - you will die here - you will die sanctuary - sanctimony
i'm searching for the one - still i'm searching sooner or later we open our eyesfortunate that we were blind sooner or later we're crying for love love's at the end of the line so much dying extinguishes our bloodline no chance of hiding the look in your eyes which says you will kill me this time
