My Heart

Loney Dear

My heart
What have I done to you?
Sadness, no disappointments
If I want to own you
If I want what yours
If I always want to own youNo sadness
No disappointments
No tiredness
Could get through my skin
And I woke up
Was crying in my sleep
And the bitterness
Was littered under my skinAh-- Oh---My heart
The game is yours(?),
I'm too late
I want what I asked for
Want what I asked for
