Lost in Hollywood

Graham Bonnet

Gotta get a message through, as I think I'm losing you
Am I too late?
Drinking heavy trying to lose some time
I gotta know if you're still mine and I can't wait
Last time I saw your face
You tried to hid the tears
But I could see the trace
I'd be there if I could,
but I'm so far away from home
Lost in Hollywood
In the dark the vultures wait
I can hear them knocking at my gate
But I'm not here
The beer is cold the meat is stale
In the L.A. night the sirens wail the song of fear
Pale stars that never shine
Scotch at the Whiskey, at the Rainbow locak wine
Cheap love more bad then good
I gotta get away somehow
Lost in Hollywood
On the street the sun is fine
Burns your feet and bandages your mind
Feels alright, but I'm a lover like a loaded gun
Chasing shadows on the run, out in the night
I'm gonna lose control
If I've been losing you to pay for rock and roll Get back I know I should Gotta get back home to you
You don't know what I've been through
But there's nothing I can do
Lost in Hollywood
