Dorian

Bloodflowerz

a wish you had lost since years sticks in your hair like the smell of dead souls in nightmares the child of a stranger died in your dead arms your cold love couldn't keep it safe and warm hearts broke and sorrow is the price for a life cold as ice dorian don't touch me please don't please let my heart free dorian don't hurt me your pain gorges inside of me you hide the truth in picture strongly sealed solitude and coldness are your shield the despair of your longing sadly cries maledictions in the nights no tear will ever run from your heart with love all pain was set apartwhat you've once been wastes away buried alive on a rainy day strangers rule your thoughts what you are feeds on fraud one day will break your heart of stone this last way you'll walk aloneu2026
