Break Apart

Julia Stone

Break apart the things you see
And all that's in between Break apart things holding on
And the people that we did wrong

We got a lot to lose
We got a lot to lose
Darling, we could use
Some honesty, honestly

Break apart the things you heard
You can have the final word, my dear
Break apart the things we feel
It was always so unreal

We got a lot to lose
We got a lot to lose
We got a lot to lose
Darling, we could use
Some honesty, honestly
