

No Stars Over Bethlehem (Album Version)

Protest the Hero

I'll burn all the lives of this angel Illuminati
When St. Michael sized means find an end to justifyA belief to fortify this stained glass disgrace
Too beautiful to change or perhaps too scared
The truth behind our lives will be erasedA, a crusader begging for a crusade in which to die
Where lead locusts pierce the heart of men
And tie the tongues of those who lieCut the sinner, bleed redemption through the city streets
That resonate in prayers of this never should beSomeone plunged a dagger deep into God's chest
And when He groaned, it laid our entire civilization to rest
When He pulled out the dagger and marveled at the pain He could create
We stuck another in His back to seal creation's fateSo now, we turn from wealth in the height of all our poverty
A call that renders me ageless, turning the pages of a belief
That's greater than us all, greater than us allAmen to the fools and the cossacks and the pulpits
Amen to the people who think there's still a way to help us
Amen to the people, Amen to the people, Amen to the people
Amen to the people, Amen to the people, Amen to the people
Think there's still a way to help us

Songwriters

ARIF MIRABDOLBAGHI, MOE CARLSON, LUKE HOSKIN, TIM MILLAR, RODY WALKERPublished by Lyrics © COINFISH PUBLISHING

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlyrics.com/>