Erase

Seven Storey

Bad move, baby I let you in
You're a tattoo under my, under my skin
And I can't wash it off
It's a permanent mark
I try to let it go, I try to chill
But still I feel I'm under your spell
Oh why the hell can't I just move on?
Your memory stays with me
I can't escape, I'm running in place
I can't erase you
My mind let you just disappear
And I can't find any way, any way out of here
'Cause you're stuck in my brain
And it's a miserable pain
I try to let it go, I try to chill
But still I feel I'm under your spell
Oh why the hell can't I just move on?
Your memory stays with me
I can't escape, I'm running in place
I can't erase you
I'd give anything to be free from you and me

Me and you what can I do?
Oh what can I do?
I try to let it go, I try to chill
But still I feel I'm under your spell
Oh why the hell can't I just move on?
Your memory stays with me
I can't escape, I'm running in place
I try to let it go, I try to chill
But still I feel I'm under your spell
Oh why the hell can't I just move on?
Your memory, it stays with me
I can't escape, I'm running in place
I can't erase you
I can't, no I can't erase you baby
You're under, you're under my skin, yea
You're under my skin, yea, I know that you're
Oh I can't erase you, hey baby, hey baby, yea

You're a permanent mark
Yea, you're a permanent mark under my skin
And I'm in miserable pain, it's a miserable pain
