Wake up wake up wake up
'cause you look good without

A little dose of you helps me to start my day
Baby girl I'd really love to see you face
And don't be surprised
If you catch me gazing
Eu sei que voce me quer
I'm taking pictures in case you ever go away
'cause baby I don't wanna miss a thing
'cause you're too captivating ai gostoso

Your sexy and you know it know it know
Your sexy but you know it know it know it
Your sexy but you know it know it know it

Baby girl you don't even gotta try
It's just your looks alone really light my fire
'cause you body's blazing baby when we go to sleep at night oh I don't wanna close my eyes why dream when I can have the real thing

Your sexy but you know it know it know it

Your sexy but you know it know it know it
Your sexy but you know it know it know it
Your sexy but ya know it

Girl you know that you got me
And I thought you should know
Girl you're so exotic from your hand to your toes
And I just thought I should tell you baby
You're the reason I'm going crazy
