

Clear!

Kardinal Offishall

Kardinal, clear, clear, clear, clear
People on the left, clear
People on the right, clear
Ladies on the right, clear, clear clear, clear, clear, clear, clear, clear Cause I've been waiting my whole life, just to set this off
We in the middle of the game, all bets is off
And we killing this movement in the best of cloth
And the hard to get girls come extra soft
We need extra law for all the people in here
And I be chillin with the villains like a millionaire Killing each and every city, bottle up in the air

Celebrating that we made it, haters get in the rear
Are you really ready?
People wanna know if you really ready
Tell me if your ready, ready, ready Everybody get ready to party, get
Ladies on the right, clear, clear
clear, clear, clear, clear, clear, clear, clear
