

Revival

Galactic Pegasus

Billions and billions
So small you can't see
I reach out my hand to the void

I extend my hand out to yours
Just a reach away
All the stars are gone
Leaving one
For this falsehood to remain
Eternally young

All the more enchanting, this feeling that I thought I lost
Revival, revival

To some a paradise
To some a prison

Oh, what providence
What divine intelligence
The promised land just isn't me

Hooks hang from Neverland
