

Junco Partner

James Booker

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Junco Partner
Down the road come a Junco Partner.
He was loaded, loaded as could be.
He was knocked out, knocked out loaded right now.
And he wobble and wobble, all over the town
He said that 6 months is a heavy sentence
He said one year is a whole lotta time. Whole lotta time
Morn he was gone on ponderosa
Servin' a one year, a one year, a one year and ninety-nine.
One year, a one year, one year and ninety-nine.
I said a whisky makes me risky and water makes me dry
My woman won't let me get lonely
She give me heroin heroin, long before I die.
She gives me heroin, she gives me heroin long before I die.
Well I'm a running, I'm a running well the voice in my head says
Right now, right now, right now, right now
Right now, right now, gone down loaded
Loaded, loaded loaded
If I had a million dollars, I wanna tell ya'll what I would do.
Well I'm gonna a' roll a' one for my Janco Partner right now, right now, right now Right now, right now, right down loaded, loaded, loaded, loaded, loaded. He was loaded.
Now I'm a rolling down
the road get high my Junco Partner right now, right now, right now.
Knock down, knock down, knock down, loaded
cuz I'm loaded, loaded, loaded, loaded. Yes I am. One billion dollars. Only one billion.
I wanna tell ya let me tell ya what I would do.
I would buy half of the men around Angola
I'd blow a nice sweet bong till 1992.
I'd blow a nice sweet bong till 1992.
Marijuana bong till 1992. I want whisky when I'm thirsty, I want water baby when I'm dry
I want my woman when I'm lonely, I want heroin, heroin, long before I die.
And a little cocaine, a little cocaine, baby on the side.
Down the road a lo come a Janco partner, partner, partner
Knock out, knock out, knocked out loaded. But I loaded, loaded, loaded
