

Porch

Long Beard

time it takes to grow old, on your porch
is it long enough
to get over you
summer rain brings your voice to my ear
I'll stay up all night
just to hear your voice if I ask politely
will you ask me
the question of,
"who do you love?"
who do you love,
and is it enough?
time it takes to grow old, on your porch
is it long enough
